

Salish Sea Women's Circle

presenting a 1-day Workshop:

“Soul Masks”

with Bea Harris

Saturday
October 28

11:00 am- 5:00 pm

Cady Mountain Gathering Place
595 Shooting Star Lane
Friday Harbor, San Juan Island, WA

Tuition $65 (includes lunch & materials)

Dress: please wear casual clothing

Bring: small jar of petroleum jelly,

2 wash cloths, beach towel or flat sheet, pillow,
drum, rattle or other percussion instrument,
an open mind and willingness to explore.

Options for Saturday evening:

Class ends at 5:00pm but you can reserve a place at the table for yourself and share time and great food with others.

Additional services that are available:

Overnight lodging at CMGP: $45 per night per guest (space limit of 8 women).

Meals: Breakfast & Lunch are $10 each, Dinner is $15., Transportation from/to the ferry or airport: $5 per person

Bea will also offer a FREE lecture: "From Food Stamps to Flower Pots and Way Beyond".

Friday, October 27th, 2006, 7:00pm-9:00pm at Cady Mountain Gathering Place, space requires preregistration

Come and hear about her exciting journey, its peaks and valleys, its successes and challenges, its revelations. Hear how YOU can improve the quality of your life by saying YES to Spirit! What is required is living your spirituality every day in every aspect of your being. Tall order? Yes, and absolutely livable!

Check out her website: www.beaharris.com

Since ancient times, masks have been a symbol of power and transformation. Used by shamen of all traditions and cultures, masks have been tools of protection and portals of wisdom and mystery. Mask making can be:

- *expressing a different aspect of the Self
- *reconnection to the soul
- *the symbol of a rite of passage
- *a journey of self discovery
- *the beginning of a love affair with Self for Registration and Information call: Lavelle (360) 378-0992